Article 1. Purpose of the Agreement

The agent's purpose is to promote the company's dating site (www.CKsingles.org), encourage potential customers to register, and assist in the registration process.

Article 2. Duration of the Agreement

This contract is valid for one year from the start date or until both parties agree to terminate it in writing.

Article 3. Roles and Responsibilities of the Agent

Recruit customers and assist them in registering on the company's website.

Fully understand the company's services and explain them to customers.

Act ethically and avoid actions that could harm the company's reputation.

The agent is not allowed to directly collect registration fees. Customers must pay the fees directly to the company.

Article 4. Commission

The agent will receive compensation based on the following criteria:

Commission: $150.00 per recruited customer ($120.00 for recruitment and $30.00 for registration assistance).

The current registration fee is $200.00 (valid for 3 years). If the fee changes, the company and the agent will discuss and adjust the commission accordingly.

Group Contracts: In cases where 10 or more individuals from one group register, or when discounted registration fees are necessary, the agent will follow the policies determined by the company.

Payments will be made at the end of each month.

Article 5. Confidentiality Obligations

The agent must not disclose any confidential company information to external parties and must maintain confidentiality even after the contract ends.

Article 6. Termination of the Agreement

Either party may terminate the contract with at least 30 days' written notice.

The company may terminate the contract immediately if the agent violates its terms.

Article 7. Legal Compliance and Other Provisions

The agent must comply with all relevant laws during their activities and is responsible for any legal issues arising from contract violations.

This agreement is governed by the laws of the United States of America.

All disputes will be resolved through arbitration.
