Article 1. Purpose of the Agreement

The purpose of this agreement is for the partner to promote the company's dating site (www.CKsingles.org), encourage potential customers to register, and assist in the registration process.

Article 2. Duration of the Agreement

This contract is valid for one year from the start date or until both parties agree to terminate it in writing.

Article 3. Roles and Responsibilities of the Partner

Recruit customers and assist them in registering on the company's website.

Fully understand the company's services and accurately explain them to customers.

Act ethically and avoid actions that could harm the company's reputation.

The partner is not allowed to receive registration fees directly. Customers must pay fees directly to the company.

Article 4. Compensation

Commission: $150 per customer recruited ($120 for recruitment, $30 for assisting in registration). The current registration fee is $200 (valid for 3 years). If the fee changes, compensation will be determined in consultation with the company and the partner.

Group Contracts: For cases like group registrations of 10 or more people, where discounts may be applied, the partner will follow company-determined policies.

Payments will be made at the end of each month.

Article 5. Confidentiality Obligations

The partner must not disclose any confidential information about the company to external parties and must maintain confidentiality even after the contract ends.

Article 6. Contract Termination

Either party may terminate the contract with at least 30 days' written notice.

The company may terminate the contract immediately if the partner violates its terms.

Article 7. Legal Compliance and Other Provisions

The partner must comply with relevant laws during their activities and is responsible for any legal issues arising from contract violations.

This agreement is governed by the laws of the United States of America.

All disputes will be resolved through arbitration.
